

Carole Peterson of Macaroni Soup!

Active Music for Kids!

BIOGRAPHY

Carole Peterson has been the Pied Piper of active music for children in Chicagoland since 1989. Her energetic style and enthusiasm invites even the smallest child to follow her in singing, dancing and rhythmic movement, and the fun begins! Concert audiences jump, jiggle, add lyrics – and sometimes a snowball fight breaks out, regardless of the season!

“I’m so glad I brought my grandson – I had a great time – and he did, too!” -- Grandma from Northbrook.

“You blew us away! We’ve never had such positive reaction to performers we’ve brought in.”

-- Director, Woodridge Park District.

“Again, please!?!” -- Natalie, age 3, 1st time concert-goer.

Through her company, Macaroni Soup, Carole and her musical co-hort Alvin McGovern offer concerts with truly age-appropriate music for children and their families.

THE DIRT:

Ms. Peterson earned a BS from Northwestern University. She has been a cruise director, soap opera actress (All My Children), and assistant to a really big star! Carole travels across the US speaking at Early Childhood Conferences and presenting trainings for teachers, parents and librarians. She resides in Park Ridge, IL, with her two teens. Her award-winning CD’s are “Sticky Bubble Gum...and Other Tasty Tunes”, “H.U.M.* - All Year Long!”, “Tiny Tunes”, and “Stinky Cake”.

Alvin McGovern has been teaching guitar at The Old Town School of Folk Music for over 30 years, and is a website designer.
